MEET LACY BIRD®

— a world-famous studio of signature floristry

Founder Sofia Veiber started floristry as a hobby. Her love for flowers, eye for aesthetics, and passion for delivering emotions through bouquets evolved into the unique Lacy Bird style and a powerhouse floral brand.

Over a decade later, Lacy Bird's signature sprawling bouquets are recognized worldwide, with floral shop customers across the globe using our photos as the gold standard for their orders

SYSTEM + CREATIVITY

We are more than just a systematic business — we have successfully merged creativity with commercial success!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Absolute Beginner:

- You love flowers but have never worked on events, and your designs still look like "simple bouquets."
- You want to enter the profession and master contemporary wedding and event floristry from scratch.

The course will give you: A step-by-step foundation and the confidence to create your first bridal bouquet, arch and banquet setting during the program.

Practicing Florist:

- You already work with daily bouquets but feel stuck and want to move into premium event projects.
- You lack a clear system for arches, large-scale installations and banquet styling.

The course will give you: The techniques and Lacy Bird aesthetics to create high-end event floristry — and elevate your income.

Studio Owner:

- You want to expand your services into weddings and events and scale through premium standards.
- You aim to train your team and attract clients who value high-end floral design.

The course will give you: The course will give you: A complete event project cycle from A to Z, plus pricing and commercial-proposal strategy for high-ticket sales.

Event / Wedding Designer:

- You want to feel event floristry trends firsthand to lead your team and vendors with clarity, not guesswork.
- You plan to enter the large-scale B2B segment and create ceremony installations with a "wow effect."

The course will give you: The technical foundation and Lacy Bird aesthetics for executing ambitious wedding and event projects.

WHAT MAKES OUR OFFLINE EXPERIENCE UNRIVALED?

★ 14 Years of Lacy Bird Expertise

The entire journey from a boutique studio to a global trendsetter, packed into a concentrated practical intensive. You inherit the secrets we've spent over a decade perfecting.

★ The Floral Show Effect

This is more than a lesson; it's a performance. You become a key participant in creating large-scale art installations and floral objects that redefine what's possible in modern design.

★ Powerful Community & Networking

Surround yourself with like-minded creators. You'll join a global community of ambitious professionals, sparking high-energy exchanges, new partnerships, and friendships that last a lifetime.

★ Total Immersion Experience

Step away from the daily grind. A breathtaking new location, the scent of thousands of fresh blooms, and working side-by-side with top-tier masters create the ultimate environment for a creative breakthrough.

★ Hands-on Mentorship & Support

The Lacy Bird instructors are right by your side. We literally "set your hand," correcting technique in real-time and helping you refine every single detail until your work is flawless.

★ Direct Business Insights

In the "backstage" of the intensive, we discuss what stays off the record: real-world cases, scaling strategies, sourcing suppliers internationally, and the secrets to managing a dream team.
